Art Unit: 1631

DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' response, filed 20 April 2009, has been fully considered. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections and/or objections are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.

Claims 1-4 and 6-9 are currently pending. Claims 5 and 10-12 have been cancelled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-4 and 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. This is a NEW MATTER rejection.

Instant claim 1 has been amended to recite at step iii, "computationally matching using one or more computer processors the sorted peptide sequences of length 'N' of the selected pathogenic organisms to produce exactly matched common peptide sequences using a peptide library matching software program (PEMLIMP)".

Applicant has not provided support for such a limitation and no support is apparent in the instant specification. The specification teaches, at page 5 that the computer programs consist of PEPLIB, which is for the creation of peptide libraries of organisms from their FASTA format protein files. Also at page 5, the specification teaches PEPLIMP, which is a program to compare the peptide libraries of organisms selected by a user. At page 6 the specification teaches PEPEXTRACT which is a program that takes peptide files as input, searches FASTA format protein files and returns details about the peptides. Finally, at page 6, the specification teaches a PEPSTITCH program that joins the peptide depending on fixed criteria. The specification, however, does not teach PEPLIMP to match sorted peptide to produce exactly matched common peptide sequences. Therefore, the claim contains new matter.

Art Unit: 1631

Conclusion

The outstanding rejections under 35 USC 101 have been withdrawn in view of the claim amendments.

The outstanding rejections under 35 USC 112, 2nd paragraph have been withdrawn in view of the claim amendments.

The outstanding rejections under 35 USC 102(b) over Brucoleri et al. have been withdrawn in view of the claim amendments adding the specific software components.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
